War Hero to Speak at Church

Col. Dean Hess of the USAF will be speaker for the Men's Fellowship dinner tonight at 6:30 in First Christian Church of Torrance. About 125 men of the church will meet in Friendship Hall to become better acquainted with newer members. Col. Hess, author of the book, "Battle Hymn," from which the motion picture was made, is also an ordained minister in the Christian Church. He flew more than 300 combat missions in two wars, but he is best known for his part in saving the lives of hundreds of Korean orphans and establishment of an orphanage on the island of Cheju.

How Col. Hess was able to evacuate 1080 Korean orphans from Seoul before it was captured by Communists was one of the miracles of the Korean War. This so-called "Operation Kiddy Car" and the subsequent care of these orphans has made Col. Hess one of the great heroes of our time.

'Soul and Body' Sermon Subject

The Relationship, or lack of it, between Soul and body will be discussed in the Lesson-Sermon "Soul and Body" to be read in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

Referring to the mortal body, the Golden Text from II Corinthians (5:1) states, "We know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

Other references in the Lesson continue the analogy of the real temple (body) as God's reflection. An instance of healing is taken from the Gospel of Luke where Jesus healed a man, "which had a spirit of an un-

Rev. Ray Anger Announces Topic

"What Every Religion Teaches" will be the lecture subject of the Torrance Church of Religious Science Group, meeting in the YWCA, 2320 West Carson st., Sunday evening at 7:30. Rev. Ray Anger will base remarks on the universality of the Golden Rule, showing that our actions toward other people are generally based on our thoughts about them. Thoughts, either conscious or subconscious, come first; actions follow.

Mrs. Harriet Benedict will sing a solo and a social hour and refreshments will follow. The general public is invited.

Wednesday evening the minister will teach a lesson based on the section of the Science of Mind textbook called "The Seed of Perfection in Man." This class will be held at 1545 West 216th st. at 7:30.

Class Meeting

The Dynamic Living Class of Religious Science teachings will hold their regular meeting in the Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia ave., Friday instead of Thursday. President Robert Ford will open the meeting at 7:30 p. m. There will be a round table discussion and reports of the health treatment demonstration.

Dr. Barnum of the Religious Science Church of Redondo will be the speaker May 29, his topic being "Finances for the Church and Members."

Members of the class attended the Inglewood church Sunday to hear Dr. Jesse Longo, who will be remembered as a recent speaker before the local group.

Evangelist to Lead Service

Youth Evangelist Earla McKinley will speak Sunday night at the Torrance Foursquare Church, corner of Arlington and Sepulveda blvd., in the chapel hour (young people's service) at 6:15 and again in the evangelistic services at 7:15 p.m. Rev. McKinley began preaching at 10 and has been a much sought after youth speaker for the past 18 years. Well known in Full Gospel circles she has spoken in many of the largest churches across the country as well as at youth rallies and camps. Part of her message is her pianologues—stories with piano background.

Rev. James P. Lowen is pastor of the local church.

Religious Class Sponsors Dinner

The Dynamic Living Class of the Religious Science teachings held a pot luck dinner Thursday in the Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia ave. The dinner was served at 7 p.m.

Following was a discussion on the cooperative treatment period and a demonstration of the results of the treatments.

The public is most cordially invited to any and all of the meetings.

Another meeting will be on Friday evening, May 24, at the same place.

Student Wins Essay Contest

Florence McAlary, an A9 student at Stephen M. White Junior High school took second place in the Junior Woman's Club, Los Cerritos district essay contest. The title of the essay was, "Progress, America's Tradition." The 2nd prize was a $25 defense bond. The presentations were made at the Disneyland Hotel by the Junior Women's Clubs of Southern California.

Florence McAlary had already won the Harbor area contest held in March.
